ORIENTATION POLICY FOR NEW REALTOR® MEMBERS

Applicants for REALTOR® membership in the Association are required by the Association Bylaws to attend and successfully complete a course of indoctrination, otherwise known as Orientation, within a period of ninety (90) days from the date of their application for membership.

All new member applicants are required to attend courses on the following subject matters: Local, State and National Associations; Ethics & Professional Standards; Antitrust and Fair Housing; MLS Rules and Regulations. All applicants are required to attend and pass the orientation exam, the content, which is based only on the required subject matter.

Failure to comply with this ruling will result in the applicant being suspended and eventually dropped from consideration by the Association. Reapplication to the Association will require payment to the Association of new application fee in the amount equal to the original fee. The Board of Directors upon applicant's request will consider exceptions on an individual basis.
